

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., July 9, 1886.

Sir:

Referring to my informal letter asking for a copy of any rules which you might have for the government of the adjusters of your mint, I desire to say in justice to the Coiner of the Mint at New Orleans, that the rules he had submitted to me for my personal examination were simply intended for the government of his own adjusters and not with any view or design of having them adopted at the other mints.

Very truly

R. A. Preston

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Supt. U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 140

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
July 9, 1886

Sir:

Referring to my informal letter asking for a copy of any rules which you might have for the government of the adjusters of your Mint, I desire to say in justice to the Coiner of the Mint at New Orleans, that the rules he had submitted to me for my personal examination were simply intended for the government of his own adjusters and not with any view or design of having them adopted at the other mints.

Very truly,
R.E. Preston

Hon. Daniel M. Fox
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.